Dear Larry:

We are returning to you a manuscript entitled "The Secretary of State to President Truman," February 10, 1951 (97-98 XAM) which is part of Foreign Relations of the United States (FRUS), Volume VII, 1951, Korea and China. We have found in our review that the document can be released for publication in the FRUS series except for the two sections on 98 XAM marked by red brackets. The rationale for withholding these sections is based on protecting methods of covert action operations.

Sincerely,

Chief, Classification Review Division
Office of Information Services
Directorate of Administration

MEMORANDUM FOR: Chief, Classification Review Division

THROUGH:  Chief, Administration BranchFROM:
Administration BranchSUBJECT: Contact with D/DCI Office Concerning FRUS Volume VII, 1951, Korea and China Manuscripts

1. At your request, the undersigned carried two documents from FRUS Volume VII, 1951, Korea and China, to  in the office of the DCI. These two documents were 76-81 XAM and 95-99 XAM. East Asia Division in the Operations Directorate in its additional review recommended in a 3 June 1981 memorandum that the D/DCI clear the documents before CRD returns them to the State Department. It was determined that C/CRD wanted to obtain a statement of policy from the DDCI's office in the event that the State Department sends similar documents to CRD in the future.

STAT

2. The writer explained to  that CRD wants to give appropriate offices a chance to review and comment on policy matters appearing in FRUS manuscripts. At first,  replied that the D/DCI could not review the material at hand and it would have to be sent to the National Security Council for a decision because it concerned NSC matters. It was pointed out to  that State sends identical manuscripts to the NSC which reviews the material from its point of view while CIA looks at the documents for CIA equities.

STAT

3. At this juncture  said that the D/DCI's office would indeed like to review all of the FRUS documents of similar importance. The undersigned explained that  and the D/DCI's office could be swamped with literally hundreds and thousands of FRUS documents bearing on senior policy matters.  upon hearing this, quickly reversed his stand and said he did not wish to unleash this quantity of material on the DCI's office; this procedure would undoubtedly inundate the office.

4.  concluded by saying that only documents of high import bearing the DCI's or D/DCI's signature or name should be forwarded to the office of the DCI for review. He added that he would process 76-81 XAM and 95-99 XAM in an expeditious manner.
